ESPN LIVE BOXING CARD AT BALLY'S

Tuesday, July 14 marks the launching of a new succession of top professional boxing programs at Bally's Las Vegas, live bouts that will be shown on ESPN via satellite. Staged in the hotel's Grand Ballroom, this Tuesday's card is highlighted by a much-touted square-off between welterweight contenders Roger Mayweather and Mitchell Julian. Five other outstanding bouts are on the bill. Doors open 6 p.m., action at 6:30. Tickets now at special booth, Bally's lobby. 739-4111.

CASTAWAYS GRAND CLOSING GIVEAWAY

From now through July 19, the day the time honored Castaways closes its doors forever, the management exclaims "We're giving away the house!" in a vast ongoing celebration that will see all items with Castaways marks on them given away as souvenir or collectors' items. Through free hourly drawings, everything will go, including the gigantic 90-foot marquee sign. It will be awarded as a grand prize, with the winner (need not be present) getting a choice of the sign itself or $10,000 cash. Daily prizes include sweaters, baseball caps, beach towels, jackets, playing cards, casino table layouts, etc. A great going-away party. Be part of it. 731-5252.

TROP'S $700,000 POKER/GOLF EVENT

Starting Sun., July 12 and rolling on to July 27, the excitement of high stakes poker combines with the fun of golf in the Tropicana Hotel's totally unique, "First Annual Knights of the Round Table Poker Tournament & Golf Spectacular." Most world-class poker players already are enrolled, many of them extolling the innovative features of this one-of-kind event. First prize alone in the poker championship phase is $300,000, while the purse in the golf event is no less than $40,000. Add to these a profusion of social events, entertainment, even a "2nd chance tourney", and you'll sense how great it will be. Spectators welcome. 739-2697.

RARE SHOWING OF "THE ICART GIRLS"

Now going on, one of the most exciting, if not most delightful showings ever of the work of Louis Icart, the famed "Boudoir Artist" of the fine art world. The show, assembled here by the Minotaur Galleries in the Fashion Show Mall (on the Strip) is free to the public. A fabulous art deco exhibit, it features a wide range of the works of the art genius, with special emphasis, of course, on Icart's sensual images of languid ladies, his unique demoiselles. All are a delight to the eye and certainly a rare opportunity to see the works of this great master. Upper level of the mall. 737-1400.

$50,000 UNION PLAZA PAN TOURNAMENT

Sun.-Wed., July 12-15, at the Union Plaza Hotel, a big tournament for pan enthusiasts. $50,000 in prize money, including a big first prize and some 30 prize places after that. Registration starts Sunday, 2 to 7 p.m.; play starts Monday, noon to 5 p.m. This is a most eventful tournament, including daily free breakfasts, cocktail parties with cash drawings, plus a special elimination round on Tuesday. The whole event is topped off with a grand awards party. Call for more information. 386-2110.

JARREAU & KHAN IN ALADDIN CONCERT

Tuesday, July 14, a very special evening in the Aladdin's beautiful 7,500-seat Theatre for the Performing Arts as the hotel presents two widely popular Grammy-winning superstars, Al Jarreau and Chaka Khan in concert. The suave, soulful songs of Jarreau, combined with the dynamic, sometimes explosive offerings of Miss Khan promise an exceptionally entertaining program. Tickets $17.50, $20, $25. Phone, credit card orders okay. 736-0111.

IMP. PALACE'S "7-11" CRAPS TOURNEY

Fri.-Sun., July 10-12, the Imperial Palace hosts its popular "7-11 Craps Tournament," a fun-filled event that sees over $90,000 in cash prizes and gifts go to the winners. Based on 250 players, the tourney is a 3-round, pyramid affair conducted by world famous author and casino host, Chet Wander. Lots of fascinating features. Call for details. 794-3160.

OLD-TYME GAMBLING MUSEUM NOW OPEN

A truly unique attraction was thrown open to the public this month, the Stardust Hotel's Old-Tyme Gambling Museum. Unlike anything else in the world, the big exhibit unfolds the fascinating story of gambling through the ages. You travel amid displays of antique slot machines, unusual gambling devices, the captivating tables of steamboat gamblers, a casino gaming saloon, many others. Open 9 a.m.-1 a.m. Only $1 adults; 50¢ children. 732-6583.

BIG FOUR QUEENS ANNIV. CELEBRATION

Starting Monday, July 6 and stirring up fun and exciting specials all month long (thru July 30), the Four Queens downtown holds its 21st Birthday Celebration. While the festive atmosphere prevails, it's the customers that get the "presents" — incredible price breaks throughout hotel and casino, the likes of $1.21 breakfasts, 35¢ keno, 25¢ craps, 66¢ well drinks, $3.21 prime rib dinners and much more. Come and enjoy! 385-4011.

DAZZLING RIPLEY'S EXHIBIT NOW OPEN

Now open to the public at the Four Queens Hotel downtown, an incredibly fascinating Ripley Believe-It-Or-Not permanent exhibit and show, a massive spectacular that encompasses some ten different theme rooms and over 1,000 individual displays, each depicting a true but incredible instance in the historic series. It includes 54 wax figures, threaded through some of the strangest scenes ever exhibited. Open 9 a.m. to midnight, to 1 a.m. Fri. & Sat. only $4.95. 385-4011.

Tips on Tipping

AT YOUR HOTEL

In response to letters asking us for guidelines on how much to tip for the various services in Las Vegas, the following are suggestions gleaned from a survey of hotel personnel. All agree, however, that a tip is a reward for good service, not a fixed requirement, and the suggested amounts are based upon traditional practice by guests.

Bell Captains and Bellmen. While it pretty much depends on the size of the baggage load handled for you, it's conventional to tip around five dollars if you have several bags. Also, remember that the bell captain and his staff can perform many other services for you, such as arrangements for shows, travel, car, etc., so slipping the desk $5 ensures that you'll be well accommodated.

Showroom Maitre d's. Much depends on which show. At the bigger "name" shows and spectacles, you might tip from $5 to $20 for desired seating. At many other shows, the range of $5 is conventional. Higher ranges are purely optional.

Restaurant & Room Service. Waiters and waitresses in Las Vegas usually are tipped the same as in any city, 15% or slightly more, depending on how you enjoyed the service.

Cocktail Waitresses & Bartenders. As anywhere, a dollar a round for two people, $2 for four and a little more for larger rounds, your judgement being your guide.

Dealers; & Slot People. At the tables, players usually tip by placing a small bet from time to time for the dealers, depending on how luck and their service is treating you. Tipping keno runners and slot people usually comes upon an especially good win, in proportion to service rendered and the size of the win.

Valet Parking & Maids. Here, a tip of $1 to the car attendant is in order, and, as in other countries, leaving the maid a tip upon departure (a dollar per day, usually) is appreciated.

FREE "EXOTIC BIRD REVUE" AT TROP

Something truly unusual that children adore, the Tropicana Hotel's remarkably popular "Exotic Bird Revue," in which Clint Carvalho puts his rare birds through routines that leave everyone gasping at the talents of these beautiful creatures. The birds, ranging from yellow napped amazons to cockatoos and macaws, titillate audiences as they talk, roller skate, play games, even answer the phone. No charge, the shows are at 3, 5 & 7 p.m. daily except Mon., outdoors poolside. 739-2222.

L.V. MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY

Don't let the word "museum" give you pause. This is an utterly fascinating 2-story exhibit for people of all ages. Over 500 displays, ranging from incredible life-sized moving, growling robotic dinosaurs to innumerable modern animals, most of them in their own skins. You'll even see actual skeletons of giant prehistoric creatures. All of it is displayed in a life-like plant environment. Located at 3700 Las Vegas Blvd. South, across from the Aladdin, the museum is a non-profit educational institution. Nominal admission, $3 adults, $1.50 children. Open 9 to 9, seven days. 739-7286.

CAESARS ATARI ADVENTURE CENTER

A fascinating fun area for children and adults who are young at heart. A full 2,000 square-foot area given to electronic and video games of all sorts, located in Caesars Palace's Olympic section. It is designed to appeal to all ages, but it's a wonderful haven for children while their parents are off having their own casino fun. It especially features some 60 of the more popular video games. Open 11 a.m. to midnight. 731-7110.

BONNIE SPRINGS - OLD NEVADA

Fascinating replica of wild west mining town. An ideal get-away from the city's hustle and bustle. Lots going on, lots to see - petting zoo, train ride, gun fights, real hangings of outlaws, old opera show, authentic mine, exhibits, unique shops. Food and beverage shop. Only 30 minutes away through scenic drive. For tour pick-up call 875-4191.

WHO'S JOLLY, DRESSED IN RED AND WALKS ON HIS TOES?

Shhh... it's Santa Claus tip-toeing out of J. Callaway's Christmas in Las Vegas.

Santa doesn't want his elves to know he's shopping at J. Callaway's for all his Christmas ornaments and gifts. He's going to surprise them each with just the right personalized gift from J. Callaway's.

While you're in Las Vegas, why not follow Santa's lead and come visit J. Callaway's Christmas. You'll enter a time machine of beauty and magic where each turn is a fantasy of holiday treasures.

Whether you're preparing for your first Christmas together, adding to a lifetime's collection of Christmas keepsakes, or looking for a one-of-a-kind gift for that special person in your life -- J. Callaway's Christmas collection has the personal touch that can provide lifelong holiday pleasure and joy for everyone.

Oh, if you happen to see Santa Claus there, please... don't tell the elves.

Free Lessons in Casino Games at the Hotels

In order to make visitors who are not acquainted with casino games more comfortable, the personnel in all Las Vegas hotels make it part of their jobs to cheerfully answer questions about any of the tables or machines.

Many go a little further. They offer organized individualized instruction in casino play. In fact, some lessons are given with time to practice and even include what they jokingly call "table manners."

Below, listed alphabetically, are some of the hotels offering such instruction. Of course, all hotels also provide "how to" gaming brochures.

FLAMINGO HILTON

Instructor Dave Wilhite conducts sessions in blackjack, craps and roulette on a regular schedule, days and times posted. Lessons are on tables in the casino itself. Also, pamphlets with lessons are available in Spanish and Japanese. 733-3111.

FOUR QUEENS

Instructor Lamar Tudor is delighted to go over any of the games with you and holds regular one-hour sessions in craps, right there in the casino, daily at 4 p.m. 385-4011.

HACIENDA

Instructor George Goodwell offers lessons in blackjack, craps, roulette and keno Monday through Friday, 11 a.m. to noon, in the casino itself. He goes through each game for 15 minutes, then allows time for practice. 739-8911.

IMPERIAL PALACE

The Imperial Palace goes all out. Lessons 7 days a week in a mini-casino on the 4th floor, at 9 a.m. or 1 p.m. for Blackjack/Roulette and at 11 a.m. or 3 p.m. for Craps. Using mock chips, classes last over an hour, allowing plenty of time for practice and questions. Call. 731-3311.

LAS VEGAS HILTON

Instructor Hugh Cunningham offers sessions in craps, 21, roulette and baccarat in a special area of the casino itself. The lessons take place on a regular schedule, Tuesday through Saturday, varying in length according to student response. Call for actual times. 732-5631.

RIVIERA

Instructors Jimmy "The Scot" offers sessions Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to noon in LeBistro Lounge. For approximately an hour he gives instructions and gambling hints on blackjack, craps, roulette and any other casino activity you might want to know more about. 734-5324.

TROPICANA

Instructor Bob Sedgwick offers instruction in separate sessions on the popular games, every Tuesday through Saturday. Roulette sessions are at 9:30 a.m., Baccarat at 10:30 a.m., craps at 11:30 a.m. & 3 p.m., blackjack at 1 p.m. Look for directional signs in main casino area. 739-2222.

UNION PLAZA

Casino Manager Rod Morris gets into the act himself, offering help to anyone who requests it. In fact, Rod was the first person ever to open a regular gaming school in the U.S.A. Patient and understanding, he'll direct any beginner desiring his help. 386-2110.

research proved to be by far the best
in all of Las Vegas

That's right. Two annual surveys by market researchers from UNLV (University of Nevada, Las Vegas) proved conclusively that both in preference and usefulness, "Today in Las Vegas" leads the other visitor publications by a whopping 8 to 1. "Today" is the one they want most... the one they use most.

Our advertisers have had remarkable successes, many for several years. But more important, our files bulge with letters from everywhere praising the magazine and requesting future issues.

It's all in our office, in detail. We love showing it... or telling you more. Just call or write.

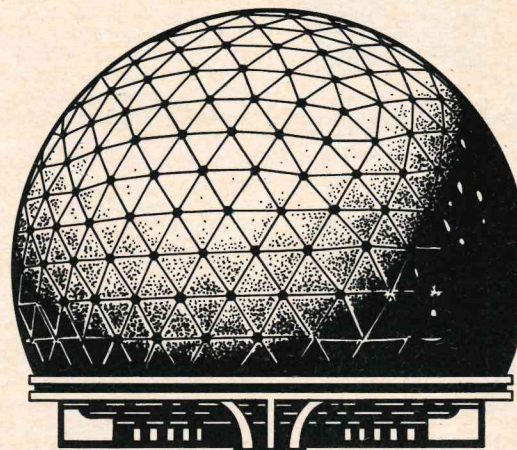

"Today in Las Vegas" is a family-published by Lycoria Publishing Company, 809 South 7th Street, Las Vegas, Nevada 89101. 702-385-2737.

BLACK FOREST, 2513 Teddy Drive, off West Sahara Ave. next to the Palace Station. An unbeatable reputation for fine German and American food, served in a warm, friendly room, wonderfully cozy old-world atmosphere. In fact, complimentary bottle of wine or champagne for four persons. Outstanding sauerbraten, schnitzels, great sausages, steak, veal specialties. Fine wines, beers. Lunch Tues. thru Fri.; dinner Tues.-Sun., from 5 p.m. Dinners $8.95-$12.95. 367-6566.

THE "HIDDEN" PADDOCK, 4051 S. Eastern Ave. at Flamingo Road, just three main cross-streets east of the Las Vegas Strip. A truly different place to dine, the Paddock is known for its charming European atmosphere, but even more for the excellence of its food, prepared by an international Swiss master chef. A splendid variety of food. Superb salads, homemade spaetzles. Cocktail lounge. Surprisingly moderate pricing for the high quality of the food. Dinners $6-$14. Open from 5 p.m. 369-2400.

Japanese

AH-SO, Caesars Palace. A restaurant dedicated to offering the complete Japanese dining experience. Decorated in manner of a lush Japanese garden, service is highly attentive. A set menu offering a variety of Japanese specialties at $39.50 per person. Also fresh sushi and sashimi. 6-11:30 p.m. Reservations. 731-7110.

GINZA, 1000 E. Sahara Ave., few blocks east of Sahara Hotel, proud possessor of Las Vegas' most complete Sushi Bar, unlike any other in the area. Authentic, fresh, sumptuous sushi service. Also, high quality Japanese menu. Long-time favorite spot of Oriental visitors, as well as local residents. Attentive service of Kimono-clad waitresses. Imported and domestic beers, wines, sake. Complete dinners from $10.55; also inexpensive ala carte entrees. 5 p.m. to 2 a.m., seven days. 732-3080.

MIZUNO'S TEPPAN DINING, Tropicana Hotel. Las Vegas' newest Japanese steak house. Specially-trained chefs prepare meal on the grille of your table. Each is a show and unusual experience in dining. Choose from splendid seafood as well as steak specialties. This is an exceptionally decorated room, a beautiful place to dine. Open 7 days. (6:00-11:15 p.m.) 739-2113.

OH NO! TOKYO, 4455 W. Flamingo Rd., corner of Arville, a popular spot, invitingly presenting four distinct dining areas, including both western style seating and traditional Japanese Tatami rooms. You are pleasingly surrounded by blond wood and black laquer. But "Oh No's" reputation comes mainly from the quality and wide variety of its food. Enjoy all the favorites, Tempura, Sukiyaki, Sushi, Teriyaki, along with Robata-style steaks, chicken and a magnificent "Sea Festival." Lunch Mon.-Fri.; dinner 7 days 5-11 p.m. $6.95-$15.95 complete dinners. 876-4455.

International-Specialty

HUSH PUPPY, 7185 W. Charleston Blvd., just west of Rainbow. For the lovers of real southern-style deep fried catfish, hush puppies, oysters, clams, frog legs, chicken and steak, this is well worth the little extra ride. In fact, it's so popular that it is serviced by tour buses from the resort areas. A homey, unpretentious place, bamboo & palm decorated and awfully friendly. Wine & beer. Pricing $6.95-$12.95 & "all you can eat" specials. 363-5988.

KHAN'S MONGOLIAN GRILL, 1220 E. Harmon, at Maryland Pkwy., across from the University. Something truly unique in dining, you select your own portions and watch chef prepare your meal in middle of room on large wok-grill. Specializes in Mongolian barbecue, meats, sausages, vegetables, seafood, stir-fried in special sauce. Bar service. Moderate, $7-$9 range. Lunch 11-2:30, M-F; dinner 5-11, 7 days. Res. sugg. 733-1888.

MARREKECH, 4632 S. Maryland Parkway, across from University. A Moroccan restaurant, oasis of extravagant decor, replete with colorful rugs, billowing fabrics, huge lush pillows. But food even more spectacular, most of it eaten with fingers as you recline in "tent" while belly dancer wiggles by. Rich concoctions of lamb, chicken, exotic vegetables. Closed Monday. 736-7655.

PAMPLEMOUSSE, 400 E. Sahara Ave. A truly splendid, sophisticated French and French North African restaurant, set in a unique cottage and acclaimed by many as the finest classic French cuisine in town. Unsurpassed continental, native dishes, recited verbally to you each night. Owner-host George LaForge is there to see that the warmth and excellence of service is supreme. You won't be disappointed; no one ever is. Res. sugg. 733-2066.
